WELCOME
CoC Members!

Love is not what you say.

Love is what you do.

And it shows in all the wonderful ways you help our neighbors in their greatest time of need!

BREAKFAST LEARNING SERIES

Schell-Sweet Community Resource Center
1897 Kings Road, Jacksonville, FL 32209
(on the campus of Edward Waters College)

A free educational program for parents, caregivers, social services professionals and the general public. The series provides beneficial information and networking opportunities for everyone involved with helping parents and raising children.

Wednesday, February 19
9 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Networking and Continental Breakfast
at 8:30 a.m.

CANEI and other NYAP services in Jacksonville

The National Youth Advocate Program (NYAP) is a nonprofit organization with locations in 10 states, including seven in Florida.

NYAP recruits, trains, and licenses enhanced foster care homes for children with special needs and behavioral concerns.

CANEI (Constant and Never Ending Improvement), NYAP's flagship program in Jacksonville, maintains a caseload of youth, ages 12 to 17, who have been unsuccessfully discharged by most other programs.

Learn about these and many other programs, including case management and foster home licensing.

Guest speaker:
Diane Hall, regional director, National Youth Advocate Program, Inc.

Please register at fss.bls.jax@fssnf.org or call 904.265.8088

Accommodations for individuals with disabilities will be made upon request in advance. Interpreter services are provided free of charge for persons who are deaf or hard of hearing.
